

This Form 99 is in response your letter of March 25, 2009.

Item #1 questioned expenditures for dinner invitation postage, printing and printing dinner invitations. We amended our 9/30/08 report to explain that these expenditures were for general fundraising for the organization and for the organization's annual fundraising dinner and meeting. They were not on behalf of any candidate.

Item #2 questioned payments relating to campaign materials and bulk mailing. We amended our 9/30/08 report to show the campaign material expenses in line 30(b) and to identify Barack Obama as the candidate. We also explained that the bulk mail expense was in connection with fundraising for the organization.

Item #3 asked to clarify our expenditures for the dinner deposit and dinner invitation design. We amended our 9/30/08 report to explain that these expenditures were for the organization's annual fundraising dinner and meeting. They were not made on behalf of any candidate.
